

Taking Berwick-upon-Tweed forward through its food heritage, past and present

THE MOUTH OF THE TWEED CHARTER

Mouth of the Tweed is a voluntary association, the principle aims of which are to:-

- develop the potential of the River Tweed and its food-heritage associations as a vital economic and cultural asset for the communities of Berwick-upon-Tweed and its hinterland;
- devise and deliver a co-operative strategy to promote Berwick-upon-Tweed and its hinterland as a distinctive visitor destination through its heritage of producing food, today and in the past;
- create, develop and promote a network of food-related sites, enterprises and projects;
- facilitate co-operation and communication between sites, enterprises and projects within the Mouth of the Tweed network;
- involve people of all ages in conserving, interpreting and learning about the local food heritage;
- widen availability and raise awareness of the food and drink produced and processed within the Mouth of the Tweed area of benefit, today and in the past;
- encourage new enterprises based on locally-sourced produce, and help sustain and expand employment in food heritage related projects in the area;

Note: The Mouth of the Tweed area of benefit encompasses a radius of approximately 25 km (15.5 miles) from the mouth of the River Tweed at Berwick-upon-Tweed

STATEMENT OF SUPPORT

We endorse the Mouth of the Tweed Charter and will help to achieve the aims by supporting activities that we consider to be practical and appropriate for our organisation.

We understand that our endorsement of the Mouth of the Tweed Charter will entitle our representative to attend and vote at the association's Annual General Meetings.

This expression of support implies and requires no financial commitment on our part, other than any voluntary contribution we may choose to make, unless the introduction of a subscription is proposed and agreed at a future Annual General Meeting.
